Alma Mater

In the heart of Carolina,
 'Neath its skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view,
Classic in her broad proportions,
Looks she proudly down—
Reared against the arch of heaven,
With the stars for crown.

Chorus

Lift the chorus, speed it onward;
Let it never cease;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Hail, all hail, to Peace!

Chambering o'er the walls and columns
Historic ivies twine,
As pure love and tenderest memory
In our hearts enshrine
Days of toil and days of pleasure,
Happiness and joy,
Hardships, struggle without measure,
Days without alloy.

Honored be our Alma Mater,
Honored for her past;
Honored in the living present,
Let her honors last?
Long as time shall tell the story,
Long as hearts are true,
May her name be crowned with glory
And honors ever new!

MISS NANNIE CARRINGTON DENWIDDE.

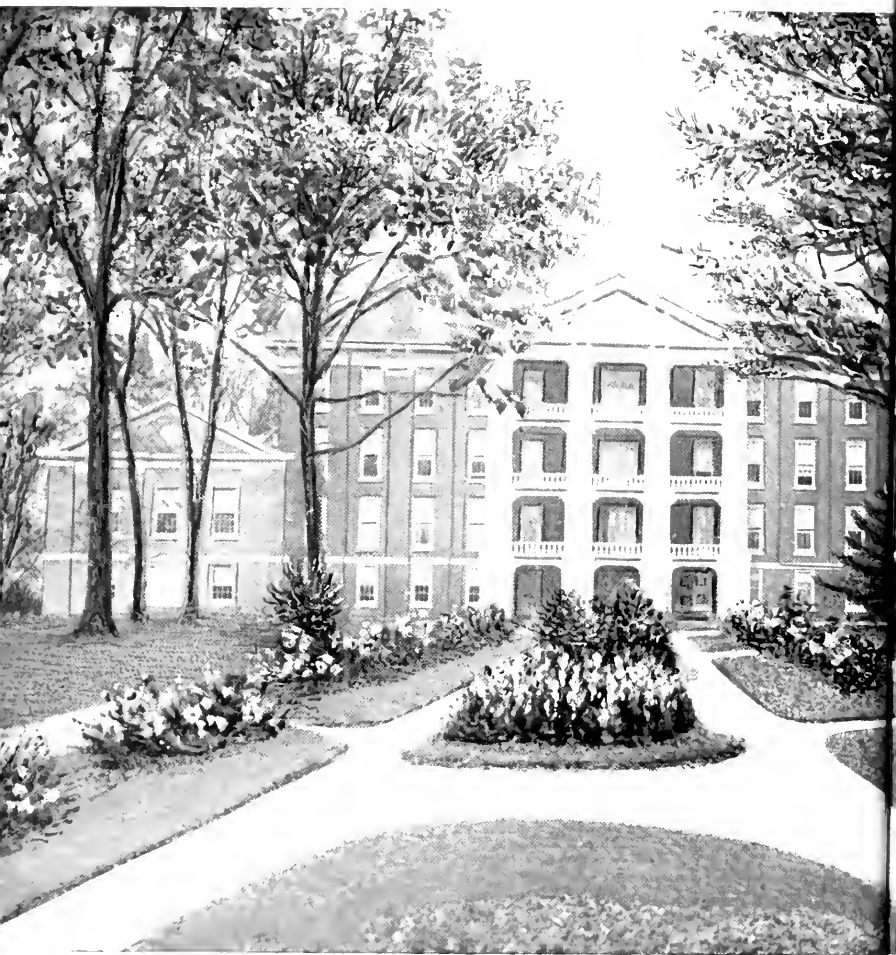

WILLIAM PEACE

To
MRS. MARGARET MERRIMAN KENNEY
a beloved member of our faculty for many years, and a charming representative of our ideals of true womanhood,
we dedicate this,
the 1934 Volume of THE LOTUS.

For all the charming hours
We have known you Mrs. Kenney,
For all the golden minutes
In the presence of your face,
We're indebted but to heaven—
And we would we knew the secret
Of your ever sparkling humor,
And your kind and stately grace.

Like the yellow summer roses,
Like old lace and sweetest lilacs,
You would make a lovely picture
Were you seventeen or eighty;
There was never in the stories
Of the fairy queens and princes—
Never was in written romance
Such a gay and lovely lady!

WHO would dream that the quiet, efficient, but charming Miss Davidson could rightfully assume the title of Dr. Davidson and, if she cared to, list A.B., M.A., and Ph.D. after her name? Even though all this is true when Miss Davidson is mentioned, it is her ready smile and laughing, gray-green eyes of which we think and not her many accomplishments.

Coming from Tennessee to Peace for the first time last year as history teacher she willingly gave her help whenever she was called upon and entered cheerfully into our school activities with us. Miss Davidson's courses reflect her personality and are as popular as she herself is.

The Class of 1933 considers itself truly fortunate to claim her as its own teacher. As we leave our Alma Mater we retain a picture not of Dr. Elizabeth Davidson but of just Miss Davidson, our adviser, friend, and pal. The same claim we hold on her she in turn holds on a place in our hearts which will indeed be hard to fill.

Senior Poem

We have walked across the footlights of the Present and the Past,
It's a play that's in progression and we're all of us the cast,
And our audience, the painters, with their brushes swiftly trace
Their impressions of the sorrow or the gladness of each face;
And the painters will be leaving for the paint is getting dry;
And the pictures will be hung among the thousands in the sky,
Unknown painters will be coming and the curtain will be lifted,
For the play is not completed; just the scenes are being shifted.

NANCY LAWLOB,
Class Poet.

WELLS

Sir Walter Raleigh obtained a patent from Queen Elizabeth and sent an expedition, headed by Phillip Amadas and Arthur Barlowe, to America in 1584 to select the site for a colony. They landed about 21 miles north of Roanoke Island, having come through the inland waters of North Carolina. Raleigh named the land Virginia in honor of Elizabeth.

Senior Class History

DEAREST ELIZABETH:

It had been years since I had heard from you until I received your letter this morning! The last time I wrote you I was still in High School so you probably don't know that I am now about to graduate from your old Alma Mater, Peace.

I entered in the fall of 1932 along with sixty-nine other girls—all miserable and green like myself. After several attacks of home-sickness we gradually settled down and began to enjoy college life. Betty Smith, a real veteran who finished High School here, was elected class president and Miss Elizabeth Davidson was chosen to advise us. She's a peach! It was all such fun! Society rushing was followed by initiation and the banquets. Time went by swiftly with athletics, teas, studies, and of course week-ends. Christmas came before we realized it, and three weeks of vacation!

After the holidays came exams; (a fact which deserves a paragraph all to itself).

Stunt Night we presented Toyland Romance and, to our great surprise and delight won the cup! Ruth Crooks and Emmis Lane were the leads.

The May Day Festival required a lot of practice but it turned out to be well worth it. The day was fair and we had one of the largest audiences there has ever been. After May Day we honored the Seniors with the return to the old custom of a Prom. Too soon came exams—followed by the close of school.

We were all back this fall with a grand summer behind us. High and Mighty Seniors! Betty Smith was again chosen for president, and under Miss Davidson's guidance we started gaily and confidently on our Senior year. Exams came and went without perceptibly altering our posture or fading our youthful charms. We are suddenly at the climax of our school careers; graduation is tomorrow. The old expression "Happy school days" is certainly true in our case.

Hastily,

EMILY SCOTT, Class Historian.

Prophecy

NOW, as I find the New Year of 1944 dawning, I look around to see if I can find my old classmates. We graduated from Peace in 1934 and now I find some of these very girls taking part in the leading events of our own country helping to turn the wheels of progress.

My old friend Nancy Lawlor is presently back at Peace teaching Art there, but as always this is not her only interest. On the side she is one of well-known contributors to The Yrac Forker. I find one of my classmates happily married and living in Raleigh with one of her favorite pastimes as entertaining the Peace girls. It is none other than Mary Thomas Smith.

Last fall, when I was visiting in Virginia I happened to inspect a Boys Orphanage and who should I find in charge but Sara Dudley Whitmore. At the same time I learned that Lois Cromartie, living in New York, had become a famous adviser to debutantes.

In a near-by town I find Catherine Woodall, head of a nation wide cooking school, famous for testing recipes. Sara Stegall, in 1936 returned to her home in Africa and since has been teaching the natives there.

A newly discovered opera star who had nation-wide publicity last fall turned out to be Mary Rennecker. I read today in The Washington Herald that Ruth Crooks, the new Tennis Instructor at Marjorie Webster School, arrived yesterday. She was met at the station by Mary Daniel, famous trapeze artist, and Catherine Rankin, North Carolina representative at the National Woman's Club meeting here. (Looks like a Peace Reunion!)

Several weeks ago Helen Brame, the famous woman aviatrix, who had just established a new endurance record for women rushed to Connecticut to attend the wedding of Miss Betty Smith.

Mavis Koonce, will represent the United States this summer at the Olympics. She now holds the diving championship of her country.

I went to the show the other night and whose face should I see flashed on the screen but Janet Floyd who is the movies second Janet Gaynor.

Lillie Bynum is in Los Angeles conducting a dancing school, while Mary Friar Rouse is, at the present, one of the most famous stylists in New York. We have a new Radio comedienne, it is none but our own little Louise Wells. It is said that she will put Eddie Cantor in the "dark."

Just before I was to sail last summer I entered a well-known Beauty Salon in New York. I found on entering that it was owned by my old friend, Jewel Higgs. Also working in the same salon were Athalea Holland, Frances Durfee and Maxine Hayes. Jewel and my old room mate, Caroline Long, who holds a high position in one of the stores of the elite, are living in New York and "experiencing" life, as it is. On the boat, on which I sailed I found Elsie Bodwell and Elsie Hayes. Among our foremost American lawyers at the present are Emily Scott and Dorothealen Hales.

A young society matron of New Bern, formerly Ennis Lane, has founded an organization to prevent Highway hold-ups of college boys and girls. One of my former classmates, Elizabeth Parks, is the wife of the present head of the Greater University of North Carolina—(Believe it or not, he doesn't wear glasses!) Mamie Franck Haywood, as I noticed in an advertisement the other day, is head of a nation-wide bureau for finding lost articles. (Her specialty is Fraternity pins). Annie Lee Hooker is the new Editor of College Humor. Still "chumming together" are Edith Jerman and Rosalie Hay, who are two well-known night club hostesses. Coming to the last three names on the list I find all of them happily married, and doing a little "bossing." They are Ada Ruth Stevens, Margaret Waddell and Lillian Hunter; although Lillian isn't doing much bossing because she's married to a well-known Chicago gangster—(She's trying to reform him). Let's have our next Class Reunion in Chicago and see how she's getting along. Perhaps there will be more news by then.

MARIANNA NICHOLSON, Prophet.

Last Will and Testament

WE, the Senior class of 1934, not having been pronounced physically and mentally sane, do nevertheless feel it necessary, since we are about to depart into unknown realms, to leave behind us a part of that glory which we have so skillfully acquired. We do, therefore, declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I. To Dr. Pressly and Miss McLelland we leave our appreciation for the many ways in which they have helped us in building our character and in making our school life a pleasant memory.

Section II. To the faculty we leave our thanks for their undying efforts to increase our intellect.

ARTICLE II

To the rising seniors we do leave:

1. Our senior privileges.
2. Our untold pleasures.
3. The honor of graduating.

ARTICLE III

To the preps we do will and bequeath our dignity, loyalty and senior privileges for one day.

ARTICLE IV

Section I. I, Betty Smith, do will and bequeath my ability to manage the Senior class as well as I have, to Josephine Jones.

Section II. I, Caroline Long, do will my room to whomsoever shall be my successor as the most distinguished President of the Student Body.

Section III. I, Sara Dudley Whitmore, do leave my "come hither look" and outlandish flippancy to Mouse Page.

Section IV. I, Mavis Koonce, do regretfully will my tennis racket to Blessing Whitmore. May she learn to be as good a player as I am.

Section V. I, Jewel Higgs, do will my gracious slenderness to Tubby Eisenhart.

Section VI. I, Janet Floyd, do leave my enormous appetite to Anne Thompson.

Section VII. I, Mary Renneker, do sorrowfully will and bequeath my winning ways with the faculty, to Patsy Riels.

Section VIII. To Betty Bowling, I, Helen Marie Wiel, do will and bequeath, my Dave.

Section IX. I, Annie Lee Hooker, do leave my alluring femininity to Virginia Adams.

Section X. I, Emily Scott, do leave my charming "giggles" to Eloise Hayes.

Section XI. I, Lois Cromartie, do will and bequeath my Katherine Hepburn look, to Clara Fenner—in order to continue attracting the numerous suitors to Peace.

Section XII. I, Catherine Rankin, do leave my loquaciousness and emotional instability to Betty Sherrill.

Section XIII. We, Sara Lytle, Catherine Woodall, and Louise Wells, do will our title "The Peace Boswell Sisters" to Mary Anne Taylor, Betty Felton, and Louise McLeod.

Section XIV. I, Boots Haywood, do will and bequeath, my beautiful golden locks to Meredith Holderby, in hopes that they will make her as popular as they did me.

Section XV. I, Nancy Lawlor, do leave my ability to get in trouble and "get campused" to Margaret Price.

Section XVI. We, Lois Cromartie and Ennis Lane, do gladly will our difficulty in getting along together to Dorothy Cooke and her roommate.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. We, the Senior class, do hereby appoint Dorothy Thurman as sole executor of this will.

Section 11. This will is signed in witness thereof by the class of 1934.

Signed this 28th day of May, 1934.

ENNIS LANE, Testator.

Witnesses:

Miss Davidson.

Betty Sue Olive.

Mary Lou Pressly.

A stillness of heaven enfolds her walls,
Calm, peace, and rest around her fall;
Then she wakes from her tranquil rest,
Knowledge pulses from within her breast.
To honor, love, and cherish Peace,
To let her wonders never cease;
In our Alma Mater to believe,
To make her better ere we leave;

A CAREER AND YOUR HOME

A promising future is often-times sacrificed on the altar of household drudgery. You have planned a career—yet you, like all other women, will some day want the pleasures and comforts of a home of your own. Must you abandon the work for which you are prepared in favor of the home? Not in this age of electrical conveniences! You can manage a home successfully and at the same time carry on with your vocation or profession. Electrical appliances will provide you with the necessary time and perform your household tasks efficiently and economically.

MEREDITH COLLEGE

RALEIGH, N. C.

Offers Young Women Three Distinct Advantages

1. It is recognized as a STANDARD College by the Southern Association of Colleges, by the Association of American Universities, and by the American Association of University Women.
2. It is a SMALL College—Student body of 500—large enough for enthusiasm, but small enough for students and teachers all to be good friends.
3. It is a CHRISTIAN College—with Christian atmosphere and motive and freedom.

BUILDERS OF DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to interpret the ideas of the Staff and create in material form their vision.

From the art work and engravings to the finished book, this volume is the result of organized cooperation with the Staff.

Such able cooperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete cooperation from art work and engravings to the finished book, we offer unexcelled service. Complete service means undivided responsibility as to the result—one organization to correspond and talk with—one trained director to merge the many ingredients into the finished product.

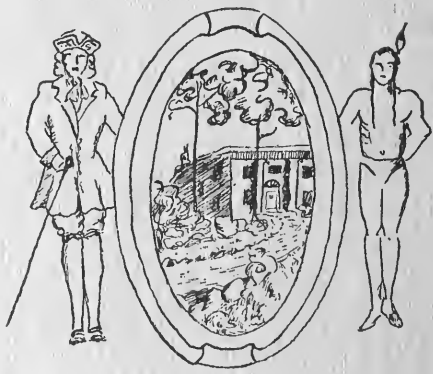

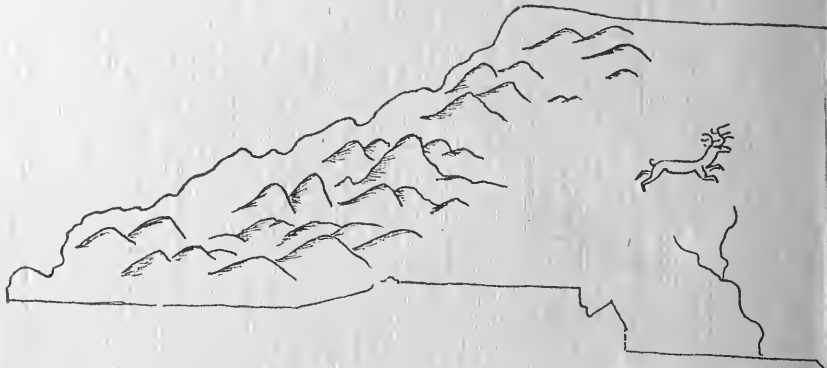

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
